

and 156, as the Cunog stone, and is stated to have been inadvertently (!) built with the letters inwards into the arch between the nave and tower of the church of Llandevaelog-fach.

PLATE XXXIV.

THE LLANYNNIS ORNAMENTED CROSS.

This is one of the most elegant of the early carved stones of Wales. It is inserted in the wall of a cottage called Neuadd Siarman at Llanynnis, 3 miles west of Builth, south of the road to Llandovery, on the opposite side of the river Wye. It is elaborately ornamented with interlaced ribbon-work on two of its sides (the others being hidden by being built into the wall), and the upper part of the stone formed into a cross with dilated ends and with a raised edge extending all down the stone, divided on each edge into five compartments by knots. The centre of the cross forms a boss, which has evidently been ornamented, but is now much weathered and indistinct. My drawing has been carefully made with the camera from a rubbing made by myself. It had been previously engraved in Jones's 'Brecknockshire,' ii. pl. 8, fig. 1, from a drawing by the late Rev. T. Price of Llanfihangel-Cwm-dû, but is there represented too short. The stone is 57 inches long and from 8 to 12 inches wide.

PLATE XXXV. FIGS. 1, 2.

THE LLANTHETTY STONE.

These figures represent a stone built into the wall of the church of Llanthetty, a village 6 miles north-west from Crickhowell, near the road to Brecknock, on the opposite bank of the Usk. The east end of the stone, 20 inches long and 5½ inches wide, is ornamented with straight lines bent at right angles, forming a slight kind of Greek fret. The north-east end of the stone is very rudely inscribed—

+ GURdon
wacERdoz

The letters are very irregular and ill-shaped, the G and R of the genuine Anglo-Saxon form, and the S at the beginning and end of the second line prostrate. There is a depression in the stone between the G and U, and a slight oblique depression between the O and R, but as the letters are cut uniformly deep, these impressions cannot be regarded as letters, as they are doubtfully read by Hübner ('Fuit-ne Giurdan?' Inscript. Brit. Christ., p. 16, No. 42). The stone is not given in Prof. Rhys's recently published Lectures.

PLATE XXXV. FIGS. 3, 4.

THE INSCRIBED STONE AT LLANGORS, NEAR TALGARTH.

I am indebted to the Rev. D. Lewis of Llangors, Talgarth, for a notice and rubbing of an early inscribed stone, of which no representation has hitherto been published, and
